THINKING OUT LOUD

By H. M. L. Jr.

DON'T PUT IT ON IF IT PINCHES

She's of average height, very young looking, with very blue eyes and blonde hair. She's active in civic affairs and at the moment her chief concern is with Nevada City's growing interest in the airways. Her accent, after all these years, is British, and very pleasantly so. She wears neatly tailored slack suits, usually blue. Recently, in the meeting of a local organization, she stood up for what was not the most popular side of a controversy, and expressed herself most eloquently in that same cultured accent that brings a touch of cosmopolitanism to these rough and ready foothills. She writes a column for a Nevada County newspaper. If you don't know what her name is by now, you must be a goldarn furriner and haven't lived here for hundreds of years like the rest of us.

He's above average height, has a round face, and a roundish figure, sandy grey hair and wears glasses. He's done a lot for the town and he's doing a lot right now. He was one of the energetic handful who got the Nevada County Farm Market rolling, when it first began. He holds an office indicative of his fellow business men's respect for him. After long experience in business, he now owns his own retail firm. During World War I he served with the Canadan Legion. Usually wears a white sport shirt and grey slacks. His name is——you're right!

If I told you what I'm going to tell you in the last sentence of this paragraph now, you'd know who I meant right away so I'll save it. This gentleman is taller than average. He has a technical and literary background. He's the author of a book about democracy in a land where the predominant epidermatical color is not white. ("Epidermical"—where'd I get that? NEVER take a job in a newspaper!) His complexion is ruddy and his eye bright, his bearing extremely erect, although he's not a young man. He's a collector, and what he collects has much bearing on the local scene. At the moment he's interested in real estate. He is, to make a long story short, Nevada City's historian.

She's tall and slender and these days she dresses like a man, because she's doing a man's work. Her husband is still in the Army and she's running his business in tip-top shape while he's away. She knows as much about an automobile as most men and she's made a lot of new friends for the business in her husban l's absence. And she does all this in addition to being a good mother.

This husky young guy is a local official. He holds a job where he could wear a uniform if wanted too, but he had enough of that during three years in the Seabees, mostly overseas in Saipan. Tinian, Hawaii and way stations. He's a rugged looking guy, and not very hard to find. When a certain type of combustible casualty occurs or tries to occur, he's the fastest moving man in town. His sense of humor is number one. The other morning, while he was hosing off Broad St. (there I go, giving it away again) he just about washed Danny Crawford down to the Plaza, because he claimed Danny was making faces at him. If you don't know who this man is, you're dead, send for a hearse.

She's petite, very, very slender, wears a print dress and a picture hat or else a kind of playsuit jumper. She's the mother of two and her husband is soon to leave for the Philippines. Like so many of the subjects of these thumbnail sketches, she takes a very deep interest in the color and history of Nevada City. She just sold one house and bought another one and is undertaking a rather interesting remodeling job. She edits the "Nevada City 50 and 75 Years Ago" department of one of California's livest country newspapers.

ALEX JACOBS SUCCUMBS TO HEART ATTACK

Mrs. May Jacobs, wife of Alex I. Jacobs who died of a heart attack in a Colusa Hospital August 4th, with her daughter Betty Jean, left yesterday to attend the funeral that will take place at Sinai Memorial Chapel in San Francisco. Rabbi Saul White will speak at the service.

Jacobs came to Nevada City twelve years ago and established the Boston Mercantile Store. He formerly lived in Sacramento.

Word was received yesterday of the death of Alex J. Jacobs, proprietor of the Boston Mercantile Store here, who was a victim of a heart attack at a Colusa hospital Sunday afternoon.

Jacobs left here last week for a vacation at Wilbur Springs in the interest of his health. While there he suffered the heart attack and was rushed to Colusa where he died in a short time.

The deceased was a native of Poland, aged 63 years but had lived in this country since bayhood. He came from Chicago to Sacramento, where at one time he owned a large business in clothing and several hotels. Adverse business circumstances finally caused him to come to Nevada City 12 years ago to establish the Boston Mercantile Store. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. May Jacobs and daughter, Miss Betty Jean Jacobs a student in the University of California..

Customer Walks Through Plate Glass Door

A new plate glass window installed yesterday morning in the entrance door of Vic Breuer's retail store in Grass Valley was a reminder to him to restrain his window-polishing enthusiasm. His expertness as a window polisher resulted in a customer, T. C. Jerdon, walking right through the spotlessly clean and transparent glass. Jerdon, who went through the door with a resounding crash, suffered minor scratches.

WARRANT ISSUED FOR ARREST OF SACTO. SALESMAN

L. G. Lageson, county agricultural commissioner in his capacity as county sealer of weights and measures, yesterday signed a complaint charging John Doe Chasteen, salesman for the California Chemical Company of Sacramento, with having sold underweight packages of insecticide to local firms. A warrant for arrest has been issued.

Lageson states that packages of fluoride sold in Nevada City and labeled "net contents 5 pounds, when actually weighed showed net contents of one pound and 13 ounces.

EDMUND DAVIS MINE ENGINEER DISAPPEARS

Sheriff Carl J. Tobiassen and his deputies are this morning searching along the Cascade Ditch for Edmond Davis, retired mining engineer, who disappeared from his Grass Valley home Monday. An NID ditch tender early this morning reported that he had seen a man answering the description of Davis, carrying a long paper parcel, which may have been the 22 calibre rifle mentioned of in earlier reports, walking along the ditch path last evening.

The Grass Valley city fire and police departments, the U. S. Forest Service, and the sheriff's office have so far reported no success in their intensive search for Edmund Ireland Davis, 69, missing from his home at Walsh Street and Columbia Avenue in Grass Valley since Monday.

Officers broadened the scope of their search to include Idaho-Maryland and Brunswick mine properties. Police, firemen and forestry officers searched until 2 a. m. Tuesday morning and resumed the search yesterday.

Davis a graduate of Yale Universitys' engineering school, according to a statement made by his wife, Mrs. Maud Davis, has been despondent for long time. She found a note he left reading: "The time we have talked about is almost here." He left his home Monday leaving his spectacles his wallet on the living room table. The dog that usually accompanied him was locked in the house. His stepson, Don, and his wife did not learn of his disappearance until their return from work at 5:30 Monday evening.

The last report of Davis received by the police was that he passed the corner of Main and Bennett Streets Monday evening carrying a long paper wrapped parcel which is believed to have been a 22 rifle.

SHERIFF CARL TOBIASSEN TO BE HOST TO FRIENDS

Sheriff Carl J. Tobiassen will be host to his friends at a barbecue at Central House, nine miles east of Nevada City on the Tahoe Ukiah Highway. He will be assisted by members of the Nevada County Sherif's Posse. The event will take place August 18th.

The posse will gather at Central House for an overnight ride at 5 p. m. one week from Saturday. The evening meal will be barbecued steak. On the following day the public will be invited. The sheriff said yesterday: "A cordial welcome is extended to all my friends in the county."

The sheriff stated he had made arrangements to feed 1,000 persons, seating 400 guests at a time. There will be baked beans, green salad, sliced toamtoes, barbecued meat, bread and coffee. Guests are asked to bring their own knives, forks, spoons, plates and cups.

The posse has agreed to police the road leading to the Nevada City Airport on the occasion of the air circus, sponsored by the Nevada City Chamber of Commerce on Labor Day September 2nd.

Hilda Nay Weds Allen Hill

Hilda Noy and Allen Hill were united in marriage 8 p. m. Friday evening August 2, in a ceremony at the Congregational Church in Grass Valley with Rev. W. W. Turner officiating.

The bride wore pale pink, with a corsage of gardenias. Bridesmaids were Miss Mae McKinney and Miss Grace Fisher, dressed in pale blue silk and wearing corsages of pink carnations. John Stansfield was best man and Oakley Patterson was usher.

The new Mrs. Hill is a graduate of Grass Valley high school in the class of 1946. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Noy of Maryland Drive. Allen Hill is a civilian employee at Camp Beale.

LOST YOUTH IS FOUND AFTER ALL NIGHT SEARCH

A general alarm was sounded at 10:30 Monday p. m. calling all firemen to assist Chief of Police Max Solaro and Fire Chief Cameron Larsen to look for Fred Warner 22, of San Francisco who arrived to visit relatives here Monday afternoon and shortly afterward went swimming in a deep hole in Deer Creek with other youths. He failed to return at dinner time and his family on Boulder street became alarmed.

Police and firemen search until 4:30 Monday morning seeking the missing boy on both banks of Deer Creek as far north as the dam above Willow Valley. They called the search off to gather new forces. He was found at 6:30 Tuesday morning on the porch of Mrs. Minnie Furcovich by members of the family.

FARM MARKET EXPANDS, HAS COMPLETE LINE

Business is booming at the Nevada County Farm Market, according to Market Master W. H. Cartwright. Eight new stalls are benig completed this week to accommodate more produce growers.

Cartwright estimates that 20 growers will be on hand Saturday morning at 8 o'clock when the market opens with what is expected to be the most complete stock of fresh from the farm food yet offered to the public. Regular market days now are Tuesdays and Saturdays and hours are from 8 a. m. to when all the produce is sold, usually around 2 p. m.

With the completion of the new stalls the Farm Market will have facilities for 22 producers in individual booths. Local farmers report that Nevada County vegetables and fruits are now approaching quantity harvesting fitness.

Farmers bring their wares from the entire area, including Rough and Ready and Peardale. Many rise at 4 a. m. on market mornings in order to bring their fruits and vegetables for sale completely fresh at 8 a. m.

This Saturday's sale will feature frying chickens, Alberta Canyon freestone peaches, strawberries rabbits and a complete line of home grown produce.

The Nevada County Farmer's Market is a project of the county and the market buildings are paid for by appropriations authorized by the board of supervisors. It is located near Glenbrook on the Nevada City-Grass Valley highway, one block off the highway on the Lake Olympia road.

Work Starts On Another Section Of Highway 49

Word has been received by Supervisor Guerdon Ellis of the Tahoe national forest that Contractor A. Teichert & Son of Sacramento has been awarded the contract for reconstruction of Highway 40 from Wilson's Cabin near Camptonville to Gold Pan Lodge. This stretch of road is 2.443 miles long and is a continuation of the road construction recently completed between Freeman's Crossing Bridge to Wilson's Cabin.

The route from Nevada City to Camptonville with the exception of a short distance outside Nevada City will be largely free from the many narrow and dangerous curves formerly present.

Ellis stated the crews are now being organized and camp established at Camptonville. Work will begin shortly and is to be completed in 175 days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gildersleeve are hosts to Mr. and Mrs. George Esterly and daughters Doris and June, of San Jose.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth S. Perry and son, Stuart, are visiting Mrs. Perry's sister, Mrs. B. W. Hummelt and Dr. Hummelt.

Mrs. Maggie Kelly of North San Juan was a visitor in town Wednesday.

WCTU PROTESTS LIQUOR LICENSE FOR VET. BLDG.

A vigorous protest was voiced by members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union against the granting of an on sale liquor license to Hague-Thomas-Hegarty Post of the American Legion during a hearing before Referee E. A. McDonald of the state board of equalization in the court house Monday.

Russel B. Farley, district agent of the board, was first called and stated he had recommended that the license be granted for sale of liquor to Legion members in the club rooms in the Veterans Memorial Building. He stated that the entrance to the building is by actual measurement 354 feet from the entrance to the James S. Hennessy School, thereby answering one objection to the granting the license, that it is too close to a school.

Victor Tamietti, commander of the post, stated the club rooms, where it is proposed to sell liquor, would only be used on meeting night of the Legion from 7:30 to 10 or 11 p. m. and that no daily opening of the bar was contemplated. He said that license was asked as a genefit to the members of the Legion and of all veterans of the county.

Mrs. Mabel Kechely, Mrs. Beatrice Roberts and Mrs. Ethel Sherwood, representing the WCTU filed protests. Mrs. Kechely stated that the Veterans Memorial Building was too near the school grounds. She said that there was but 97 feet between the school and the veterans buildings. She protested that the district was a residence district and that those living in the neighborhood are opposed to issuing a license.

"Old Glory should not be brought down in disgrace, said Mrs. Kechely, "and drinking by former soldiers as well as in the nation, is public enemy No. 1." Mrs.. Kechely also declared that the Veterans Memorial Building belongs to the tax payers of the county and that they should have something to say about granting a license to sell liquor there.

Mrs. Sherwood and Mrs. Roberts also contended that liquor sales should not be permitted in a building erected from tax payers money. Rev. W. A. McBride and Harold Biggs, real estate dealer of Grass Valley both urged that the building was a public memorial and that liquor sales should not be permitted in it.

Referee McDonald stated that he would make his report and recommendation to the board August 27.

WELDING SPARKS ARE THREAT TO TAHOE FOREST

Forest fires on the Tahoe caused by welding and torch cutting operations have been responsible for the most serious threat to the national forest to date according to staff fire control officer Keith Macdonald.

Increased industrial activity in the forest is due to mining and logging operations where welding is essential to keep machinery and the equipment repaired and in operation.

Persons who plan welding in forest or brush and grass covered areas must secure a burning permit to cover use of welding and cutting torches and other apparatus before operations are begun.

Permits may be secured from the US Forest Service and California State Division of Forestry ranger headquarters by applying personally at such headquarters and signing an agreement covering specific conditions stipulated in the permit.

Failure to secure welding permits or to neglect the stipulations provided therein or to permit a fire to escape from such an operation makes the operator subject to criminal action and liable for civil suit covering losses and costs.

Mrs. Carroll Searls and Mrs. Alfred Kohlberg are returning to New Rochelle, New York after visiting Mrs. Harry Hadfield of this city and their brother, L. L. Myers of Allegheny.

SUSPECTED HIT AND RUN DRIVER UNDER ARREST

Charles Willmer Mitchell, 57, employed in the Miners Foundry, Nevada City and residing in Taylorville outside the western limits of Grass Valley, was arrested yesterday morning on orders of Captain Joe Blake of the California Highway Patrol and charged with hit and run driving, a felony.

Since Sunday night Blake and Patrolman Carl Kitts have worked to determine what car and what driver smashed into Andrew J. Torchik, believed to be an itinerant on the western slope of Shaw's Hill at 11 p. m. Torchik is now in the Nevada County Hospital recovering from a fractured leg and numerous bruises when picked up Sunday night at the roadside.

Captain Blake states that experts from the highway patrol headquarters determined that bits of paint sticking to Torchik's clothing and to small particles of fractured glass from one of Mitchell's head lamps and the paint on Mitchell's car were identical. A horn battered from the hit and run also was detached. When Captain Blake called on Mitchell and examined the car the horn had been replaced and glass in the headlight had also been replaced with a rounding surface instead of the flat glass that covered the undamaged headlight.

Both Mitchell and his wife stoutly denied hitting any one on Sunday night, though admitting they were driving along the Nevada City-Grass Valley highway at 9:30 o'clock rather than at 11 o'clock when the accident occured. Mitchell admitted, Blake states he had a couple of bottles of beer during the evening.

TELEGRAPH A MULE TO GREECE

It may be that a "man's best friend is his dog" but in Greece a man's best friend is his horse—or his mule. Greek War Relief Association is well aware of the importance of draft animals to the war-weary Greek farmer—and is acting accordingly.

In a unique and efficient program, the association is making it possible for friends and relatives of the Greeks to "telegraph a mule." It can't be done? Well it doesn't sound reasonable but mules and horses are figuratively winging their way to stricken Greek farmers via the ether waves every day.

This is one of GWRA's far sighted answers to the unbelievable devastation that is Greece. The Nazi war lords carried out their notorious scorched earth policy in the cradle of democracy" more thoroughly than in any other area. It is also fact—fantastic, but fact—that the axis stripped Greece of more than four million farm animals. Imagine a farmer without a cow or a horse. They're his very existence.

Experts point to the fact that 65% of the population of Greece depends upon the soil. Visualize a situation in which a farmer has no cattle, no horses, no tools—in short, nothing with which to carry on the tasks necessary for life. Observers say that those Greeks who still retain enough strength are pulling their own plows. But they explain that this kind of labor only adds to the general physical debiliment of these worthy people.

And so Greek War Relief has come forward in a plan to rehabilitate Greek agriculture. In cooperation with UNRRA who handles the purchasing and shipping, GRA has created great stockpiles of horses, donkeys, mules and cattle in that prostrate country. Now here's where the American public comes in.

For from $98 to $215 friends and relatives of the Greek people can purchase a horse, a mule or a cow. Upon remission of the money to the Greek War Relief headquarters in New York City, a cable is dispatched that very day to the stockpile headquarters in Greece. Presto—within a few days Demetrios, Constantine or Basil—eerhaps all three—are smiling tearfully at their "beautiful" animals.

A unique feature of Greek War Relief Association's "telegraph an animals" plan is that a purchaser may buy one animal but the donee may wind up with two. All females are bred before shipment and the colt or calf is the donee's property. Further, no animals die enroute as far as purchasers are concerned. The The stockpile takes care of that and each donee receives a rugged healthy animal. .

Each animal that is shipped to Greece is branded "USA". And every time a Greek farmer harnesses his mule or milks his cow, he knows that Americans appreciate the heroic part his country played in the war.

Do not destroy or throw away your ration books, the OPA warned all citizens..

Sugar rationing is still in effect. It is administered under the second war powers act which was renewed a few days ago..

Spare stamp 49 is required to obtain five pounds of sugar for household use.

Spare stamps 9 and 10 are good through October 31 for five pounds of canning sugar each. A. B. Hawley chief of the sugar rationing division stated that no individual can obtain more than ten pounds of sugar for home canning. He said all applications for an additional amount would be refused..

WATCH FOR PEDESTRIANS

When approaching intersections, "take it easy" and make sure the intersection is clear, motorists are advised by the California State Automobile association. The pedestrian has the right of way over motor vehicles in marked crosswalks. .

WASHINGTON NOTES

By Congressman Clair Engle

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8—Japanese Claims Bill—A bill has been introduced and is being actively pushed in the closing days of the session to create a claims commission which shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate claims by persons of Japanese ancestry against the United States for losses incurred as a consequence of the exclusion of such persons from the Pacific Coast and Pacific areas during the war. The bill sets up a commission to be appointed by the secretary of the interior, provides for hearings, etc., and authorizes the appropriation of sufficient funds to carry out the purposes of the act. The bill was requested by the secretary of the interior and introduced on the house side by Congressman Sumners of Texas, Chairman of the house judiciary committee, and on the senate side by Senator Ellenger of Louisiana.. A strong effort has been made to get the bill through in the closing days of the session, although no hearings have been held. Apparently the measure is backed by a very active lobby as I have received numerous communications about it from the people in my district and other parts of the state..

Covers Disloyal Japs—The bill is broad enough in its terms to allow Japanese both aliens and American citnzens, to make claims against the government even though disloyal to this country. Shortly after the Japanese were evacuated from the coast a questionnaire was submitted to them in which they were asked to swear allegiance to the United States and to foreswear any form of alleigiance to Japan. Over 25% of the Japanese American citizens of draft age refused to avow their unqualified loyalty to this country.. It is a manifest injustice to give damages to Japanese who admitted their disloyalty to this country. The bill in its present form would preclude those who had been deported from claiming damages, but that does not by any means cover all of those who admitted their disloyalty. The segregation center was set up at Tulelake for the purpose of keeping apart those who answered in the negative or refused to answer a direct quesas to their loyalty to the United States. At one time over 18,000 Japanese were in this segregation center.

Other Questions Raised—In addition to this basic objection to this bill in its present form, there is the further question as to what distinction there is between the Japanese-American who by necessary wartime order was moved off the coast and the American citizen who was drafted and who had to sell or sacrifice his property or business. In many instances young men who were drafted ond forced to go overseas to fight had to sacrifie their propertyy. Is there any real distinction in principle between their situation and that of the Japanese-American, even though loyal, who for security reasons during a national emergency was moved off the coast? In addition, if we are to compensate the Japanese-Americans who were excluded from the Pacific Coast should we not at the same time give some consideration to the gold miners who were excluded from their gold mines and as effectively prohibited from operating their properties as the Japanese Americans who had to get off the coast.

In fact, if a Japanese American could find some competent person to operate his property he could still operate it under some leasing or contractural arrangement at a profit as several did, but the gold miners were absolutely prohibited from operating their properties at all.

Further, what about the airport operators in the Pacific zone who had thousands of dollars tied up in aiplanes, hangars, airport equipment and a going business of student training and commercial flying? By government order in certain zones on the Pacific Coast they were peremptorily closed down and put out of business and often could not find a new location and had to sacrifice their equipment and property and lost the going business. These and similar fundamental questions, it seems to me should be thoroughly explored and this bill should be held up and given careful consideration with some opportunity for public hearings and discussions.

"Science and Health with key to the scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When the divine precepts are understood they unfold the foundation of fellowship, in which one mind is not at war with another but all have one spirit, God one intelligent source in accordance with the scriptural command: 'Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.

DEER SEASON

Generally bucks are plentiful and the fawn crop is good throughout the state, reports National Automobile Club in a review of deer season prospects.

Fair sized bucks are reported in vicinity of Big Antelope Mountain west of Eagle Lake; in White Horse and Hole, in Rock Area, of Lassen County. Mendocino County has many deer in Round Valley and Covelo areas and the bucks are in good shape. Sonoma and Napa Counties both have many deer however nearly all Napa is posted against hunting, but prospects for club hunters there is good. Humboldt county reports deer scarcer than in previous seasons. Deer scarce in Maricopa Road of Ventura county and with the forest closure of all western slope of Pine mountain hunting will be very limited. Many deer in French Meadows area Placer county. Bucks of Monterey county still in velvet and not too plentiful. Lake County reports normal outlook and all bucks observed in top condition.

Peeling a banana with the fingers is considered bad manners in Middle America, where most of the world's supply of this fruit is produced. In these 11 republics the polite thing is to use a knife and fork to split the skin carefully down the middle and to part it from the meat. The same is true of oranges and tangerines.

The Middle American republic of Columbia is the world's second largest exporter of coffee.

NEVADA COUNTY 75 YEARS AGO

County Gov't Cost $615,526 In Year 1944-1945

Nevada county government cost $615,526 for 1944-45 with $405,132 or 66% for charities and corrections, California taxpayers association said, making public its state wide study of county government payments city and district costs are not included.

Ten years ago 1934-35, the county government cost $228,197 with $62,676 or 27% going for charities and corrections.

Over the state as a whole county government costs reach $217,818,413 in 1944-45. Charities and corrections took $135,161,691 or 62%.

In 1934-35 county governments throughout the state cost $102,639,555 with $43,995,106 or 43% for charities and corrections.

Charity and corrections costs amounted to 50 per cent or more of county expenditures in forty one California counties in 1944-45 the association found.

In 1934-34 only one county used more than half its expenditures for charities and corrections.

Only one county spent less than one fourth of its total expenditures for charities and corrections in 1944 45. In 1934-35 in sixteen counties less than one fourth of total expenditures went for charities and corrections.

Charities and corrections took a bigger share of county expenditudes in 1944-45 than in 1934 35 in every California county, a situation hard to explain when the boom conditions of 1944-45 and the depression conditions of 1934-35 are considered.

Any man with six drinks in him will tell you he can drive. Just carry him out to his car and he'll prove it.

Mine Detectors Issued To European Farmers

A thousand mine destroyers have been issued along with UNRRA tractors and farm animals to farmers in the battle areas of Poland, Yugoslavia and Greece so that death-dealing high explosives can be cleared out of the way for crops.. In Southern Italy the chief concern of farmers planting close to mines is that their oxen are injured. Adriatic fishermen keep their boats within narrow corridors off Yugoslav ports because there has not been time to sweep the mines from the rest of the waters..

OPA CEILINGS ON RENTS ARE REESTABLISHED

Ceiling rents in effect June 30, and eviction controls were restored in the 520 OPA rent control areas on July 25 when the new OPA act became effective, Irvin D. Carson, OPA deputy administrator for rent has announced.

At the same time the new act replaced all state and local rent controls, which went into efect since July 1 with OPA national control.

Effects of the restoration of OPA rent and eviction controls were summarized by Carson as follows:

Since restoration of June 30 ceiling rents must be immediate, rent payments covering daily, weekly or monthly periods after July 25 should not exceed the formed OPA rent ceilings. Both individual and blanket rental increases granted through state or local action will no longer apply and tenants should refuse to pay more than former OPA ceiling rents.

Landlords who continue to collect rents over ceiling are in violation of federal law and subject to prosecution. However those who collected more than maximum rents for the interim period will not be required by OPA to refund the excessive amounts.

All uncompleted eviction proceedings by landlords who did not comply with the agency's regulations, are banned. The ban applies in all cases where the tenants is still occupying the living quarters. However tenants actually evicted under local law during the interim cannot regain possession.
